Andover Faces $3 To $4 Tax Hike In 1952

Overloaded Wires Cause Delay In 'Phone Service

Doherty Announces Candidacy

William A. Doherty

William A. Doherty, 21 Harding street, announced Thursday his candidacy for re-election to another three-year term on the local school committee, at the annual town elections in March.

As member of the board for years, he is dean of the Andover school committee.

New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. technicians were working around-the-clock, this week, to remedy overloaded wires, which resulted when the Extended Area phone service was placed into effect on Christmas Day in the Lawrence and Andover exchanges.

Company officials anticipated and provided for increased usage up to 300 per cent more than before the changeover was placed into effect, but even this proved to be inadequate. Officials said that the added service demanded after Christmas day was far in excess of 300 per cent.

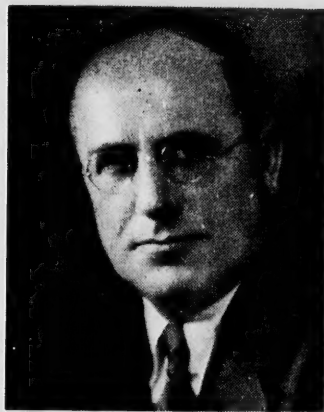

In the meantime, persons making calls between Andover and Lawrence were required to endure delays longer than was pleasing to them and the officials of the company.

A new position on the Andover switchboard was immediately ordered and technicians worked feverishly during the week on its installation. Frank P. Desmond, manager of the Lawrence exchange said that the fault did not lie with the telephone personnel but was caused by the lack of sufficient equipment to handle the increased calls. He requested Andover and Lawrence telephone users to make only necessary calls during this period of emergency and to limit

Town Officials Outline Job Ahead

EDITOR'S NOTE ----- Andover faces the new year with the possibility of a $3 to $4 tax rate boost, it was learned by the Townsman. This newspaper requested Roy E. Hardy, chairman of the board of selectmen and assessors; Sidney P. White, chairman of the board of public works and Gordon L. Colquhoun, chairman of the school committee, to offer a preview of 1952 events in their respective municipal departments. Although only the school department budget has been submitted, as of this date, which indicates a $2 tax hike in '52, Selectman Hardy expressed the opinion that a $3 to $4 tax rate boost will be nearer the situation when the entire budget is completed.

BY ROY E. HARDY Chairman, Board of Selectmen.

If my memory does not fail me, a famous Frenchman once remarked that the more things changed the more they remained the same. This, in turn, is a paraphrase of the Biblical expression that there is nothing new under the sun. In other words, for the purpose of this article, town expenses continue to mount, freedom is not free, and we seem to have very little control over the growing tax burden, even in local affairs.

Our 1952 school budget is the only major item that has been announced. This indicates a very substantial increase over 1951, amounting to approximately $2.00 on the tax rate. Although the new schools are responsible for a part of this amount, the basic factors are the larger enrollment and the increase in salaries.

Mr. Arthur W. Cole, our welfare agent, has been revising his budgets in accordance with the laws becoming effective January 1, 1952. To cite one example; a person eligible for old age assistance and living alone will receive a minimum of $79.00 per month, free of

BY SIDNEY P. WHITE Chairman Board of public works.

During the past year the Board of Public works has completed several major improvements to the town's public facilities. These improvements were made to the highway system and to the water system as planned projects under specific special articles from the annual town meeting.

A section of Lowell street from Cutler road to Argilla road was reconstructed at an elevation of four and one half feet higher than the original construction. This work improved the sight distance in this area, and enabled the Argilla road intersection to be changed so that a dangerous blind corner was eliminated at this location.

That portion of Shawsheen road which lies between Cuba street and Beech circle was widened to a minimum width of thirty feet between curb stones. Some land was purchased on the west side to enable the degree of curvature to be lessened. As a part of this job, the intersection at Cuba street was lowered slightly to remove an awkward cross slope in Shawsheen road.

BY GORDON L. COLQUHOUN Chairman, School Committee

While the year 1951 was an eventful one in the Andover school department, the school committee looks forward to accomplishment in 1952. In March 1951 the Andover school building committee, with C. Carleton Kimball as chairman, awarded the contract for the building of the two new elementary schools to Walter L. Ritchie as the general contractor. In April the work on the buildings got under way to a very good start, and today the building at West Center is 82% complete, while the new Central elementary school is 75% complete.

Realizing that these two buildings will be ready for occupancy not later than September 1952, the school committee has been working with the superintendent of schools on plans for the organization of the personnel.

Our school population continues to grow. In 1945 we had 1300 pupils. In the fall of 1952 we expect to open with 1900—an increase of 46%. The increases in enrollment have created a demand for more teachers, more housing, more sup-

Infantile Paralysis Drive Has Opened In Andover

The Andover Division of the Greater Lawrence Infantile Paralysis Fund drive moved into positive action this week and promised to be one of the most successful drives ever conducted here.

Fire Chief C. Edward Buchan, chairman of the Andover drive, said Thursday that he has never experienced such a cooperative spirit from Andoverites in any drive has been manifest in the Polio campaign.

Said Chief Buchan: "Andover residents have witnessed the Infantile Paralysis drive as it lavishes its benefits on persons suffering from the disease. We have seen neighbors and friends brought from the threshold of death due to the humanitarian assistance offered by the National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis. Andover residents have come to realize that the Polio drive is a fight which they cannot shirk."

Chief Buchan said that Mrs. Kay Moss will head the Special Gifts division of the local campaign, and Woodrow Crowley will head the Coin Box division.

He requested all residents of the town to cooperate in the Scrap Metal drive which will be held on Sunday, January 20 and the Mothers March On Polio campaign, which will be held on the night of January 31.

The drive extends through the month of January.

McDonald Heads Andover Boy Scout District

With the New Year William L. McDonald, 6 Wolcott ave., succeeds Walter C. Caswell, 5 Dunton st., as district chairman of the Andover district boy scout committee. Mr. Caswell becomes council commissioner of the North Essex Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America replacing Commissioner Robert Keogh of Lawrence, following volunteer service in Andover since 1943. In addition to several committee assignments in scout units formerly sponsored by the Shawsheen PTA and Christ church, Mr. Caswell served as assistant district commissioner in 1944, as district commissioner from 1945 through 1950 and as chairman for 1951. Mr. McDonald is also an experienced scout leader and will be assisted by the following committee chairmen: Howard B. Johnson, 66 Carmel rd., chairman of organization and extension; Arnold Schofield, Tewksbury st., Ballardvale, chairman of camping and activities; Dr. John J. McAule, 20 Walnut ave., chairman of health and safety; Joseph A. McCarthy, 26 High st., chairman of advancement; Francis T. Kelly, chairman of Francis Leslie Mullin, 62 Stevens st., district commissioner and neighborhood commissioner; L. Fraser Colpitts, Oak st., Ballardvale, and Franklyn L. Johnson, 176 Chestnut st. Committee members-at-large who are assisting on the various committees are: Chester M. Kopatch, 3 Dunbarton st., Edwin E. Leidich, 147 Summer st., Dr. Charles H. Black, 76 Main st., Charles F. Dalton, 57 Chestnut st., Merrill F. Bennett, 14 Cheever cir., Robert B. Hutton, 12 Stratford rd., John B. Senter Jr., 34 Elm st., Col. Frank J. Killilea, 23 Kenilworth st., and William F. Simeone, 19 Stratford rd. Mr. McDonald will be ably assisted by Fred Schaberg, 10 Dalton rd., as vice-chairman of the district. Mr. Schaberg is the outstanding expert on explorer scouting in the council and formed the first explorer post in the council and district for boys from 14 to 18. At present Andover has approximately 250 boys registered in units sponsored by St. Augustine's church, Free church, South church and the Ballardvale PTA.

The membership will shortly have a large gain with the chartering of an 8th unit, a new cub scout pack for 8, 9 and 10 year old boys at St. Augustine's church.

POST 75 HOLDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Explorer Post 75 of St. Augustine's church held their annual Christmas party Dec. 21 in St. Augustine's school hall. Gifts were exchanged and Santa Claus was portrayed by John McAllister.

Several awards were presented during the evening, consisting of the following: aviation rating, Harold Hayes, Robert Redfern and Eugene Zalla. Secretary's badge was awarded to Eugene Zalla; Crew leaders' badges to John Killilea and Paul Gallant. John Killilea was also the recipient of the following awards: seamanship rating, bronze award, vocational exploration rating, gold award and a one year service star.

Post Advisor Stewart Anderson and Sgt. Simpson were presented a carton of cigarettes and a tie clasp pin by the boys as a token of appreciation. Crew leader John Killilea received a wood burning set for his crew from Mr. Anderson. The Dolphin crew won the point system, which is used as competition between crews.

During the evening a skit was presented by Dolphin crew with the following taking part: Richard Finnerty, Harold Hayes, Robert Redfern, Edward Dwyer and John Killilea. The winners of two boxes of candy drawn during the evening were Kathleen Nelligan and Mrs. Simpson.

Among those present were: Fred Schaberg, post advisor for explorer post 72, Col. and Mrs. Frank J. Killilea, Post Advisor and Mrs. Stewart Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dwyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelligan, Mrs. Julia Hayes, Mrs. Mary Redfern, the Very Rev. P.J. Campbell, OSA, pastor of St. Augustine's church and the Rev. Henry B. Smith, OSA, scout chaplain. Refreshments were served.

1952 PREVIEW

The Selectmen are well aware of the ever increasing parking problems in our limited business center. We intend to present a partial solution, as part of the 1952 Warrant, and will look for further relief, if needed, if the town favors our policy. Expenses will be paid from parking meter funds, and the real estate tax will not be affected.

The legislature, that cries with the rest of us about the burden of taxes on the homes, passed a law last year that relieves most of us from paying a tax on household furnishings. This means that about $20,000.00 a year will be removed from the personal tax item and loaded on real estate; another $1.00 per thousand per year.

I have cited but a few of the major problems that face us in 1952. Substantial equipment is needed in some of our departments; last year's salary increases will be felt in full this year; insurance is increasing due to the new schools and upward rate adjustments; our number of 'aid to dependent children' cases has grown materially. I ask every one who has cared to scan this article to interest him-plies and other facilities. The committee hopes that in its 1952 budget it has adequately provided for this increase in enrollment and for the ever-rising cost of supplies, operation, salaries and maintenance.

Our committee is endeavoring to give Andover the type of schools that the people wish and that the children deserve. Our cost per pupil is neither the highest in the state nor the lowest. Our salaries are neither the highest nor the lowest, but we are endeavoring to give Andover the best possible results for the dollars spent.

tax, and is assured of necessary medical care and other benefits. None of these are a contribution of the recipient. If the same person had worked during the entire period of our social security law and had made the largest salary subject to this type of taxation his retirement pension (earned himself) would be $80.00 per month. I will let you draw your own conclusions.

Our civil defense appropriation was cut substantially at our last town meeting. I believe the action was wise, and would advocate the procedure along last years line.

Destruction From Within

Dr. Leo Wolman, professor of economics at Columbia university, recently pointed to England and France as examples of the fact that "it is as easy for a country to weaken or destroy itself from within as from without."

He then said, "Our course since the war is calculated to create and nurture the very evils against which we are supposed to be protecting ourselves. The first of these is large scale financial instability. Our policies are leading straight toward progressive decline in the value of our money, investments and contractual obligations. However much we tax we shall not arrest these trends." Finally, Dr. Wolman observed that if we are to stop statism throughout the world, "the first place to stop it is at home."

By this time, the American people should certainly have awakened to the menace of spendthrift government. It is estimated that one-fourth of the income of a family receiving the modest sum of $3500 a year goes for taxes, open and hidden, direct and indirect. As income brackets go up, the tax burden skyrockets. And future tax increases must fall mainly on people in the middle and lower income brackets — for the simple reason that this is the only possible source of substantial revenue that is left. It's no longer a case of just soaking the rich. The rich are soaked to the hilt now, and if government took every nickel of their incomes it wouldn't begin to pay the costs.

Fiscal irresponsibility has destroyed thousands of families — and it can destroy nations just as surely.

Recently a woman won a divorce from her husband because she failed to get the fur coat he had promised her while he was courting her. Suppose something like that ever happens to politicians. — Carson (N.D.) Free Press.

Enthusiasm is the greatest asset in the world. It beats money and Power and influence. — Henry Chester.

Barnard-Clement Nuptial Was Beautiful Christmas Season Event

Candelabra, white snapdragon, white gladioli, poinsettias and white chrysanthemums, banked in green, decorated the altar of the South Congregational church, Saturday, for the 4:30 p.m. ceremony which united in marriage Miss Barbara Ann Barnard, daughter of Mrs. Foster Carnes Barnard and the late Mr. Barnard, to Gordon Emil Clement, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Scott Clement of Wake Forest, N. C. The Rev. Frederick B. Noss officiated.

Escorted by her uncle, Arthur Whittier Cole, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin with seed pearls and imported Chantilly lace, fashioned with full-skirt, ending in a cathedral train. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a lace and satin cap and she carried a bouquet of paper white narcissus, azalias and cyclamen.

Joan Foster Barnard, as her sister's maid of honor, chose a gown of red-net and velvet and carried holly. The bridesmaids were: Miss Nancy P. Barnard, cousin of the bride, of Andover; Miss Jane A. Weldon of Andover, Miss Suzanne V. Fisk of West Medford, Miss Nancy J. Nelb of North Andover, Miss Gretchen Clement, sister of the bridegroom of Wake Forest, N. C., and Miss Margaret R. Durand of Middletown, N. Y. They wore identical gowns of emerald green net and velvet and carried poinsettias and eucalyptus. All the attendants wore braided velvet coronets and mitts to match their gowns.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barnard chose a gown of sapphire blue taffeta with matching hat of ostrich tips and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Clement wore a gown of iridescent taffeta of brown and gold, with a jeweled hat and green orchid corsage.

David Scott Clement, father of the bridegroom, was best man for his son and the ushers were William L. Everett of Winchester, Deane H. Morrison of Henniker, N. H., John Threshie of South Dartmouth, David

P. Graham of West Hyannisport, Thomas C. MacDonald of Gardiner, Me., and Donald B. Cole of Exeter, N. H., cousin of the bride.

A reception at the Andover Country club followed the ceremony with many out of town guests present.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans the couple will reside at 95 Elm st.

The bride attended Abbot academy and graduated from Oak Grove school and Centenary Junior college. The bridegroom attended the American high school in Mexico City and Phillips academy. He graduated from the New Hampton school and Nichols Junior college. He is an assistant buyer with the Jordan-Marsh company.

PHILLIPS ACADEMY SHED FIRE — Damage estimated at $4,000 resulted on Friday, Dec. 28, when a building used by a construction company engaged in erecting the new gymnasium and located on the school campus went up in flames. An overheated stove pipe was reported to have caused the fire which ignited the shed, which is near Memorial Tower. (Look Photo)

Excavation work is now in progress on Greenwood road in preparation for the reconstruction and relocation of the southerly end of this road. Three parcels of land have been acquired which will enable the roadway to be relocated to a new and practically straight line, eliminating four sharp curves. Final grading, drainage work and surfacing will be done next spring and summer.

During the early months of the year two new pumping units were added to the water system. At Haggitt's Pond station a 2500 gallon per minute electric driven centrifugal pump was installed to take care of the heavy summer demand at that station. This unit has the capacity of both old pumps combined and in effect doubles the capacity of the station. At Bancroft road station a 500 gallon per minute gasoline electric dual driven centrifugal pump was installed to handle the increasing demand on the high service system. The station has been re-wired in a manner which reduces the annual power costs, and new controls and metering equipment have been added, all of which increase the overall operating efficiency of this small but important station.

New water mains installed during the past year consisted of a total of 3289 linear feet of 6" cast iron pipe. A little less than half of this distance was laid on Sunset Rock road and on hidden road to connect dead ends and thereby create two additional circulating loops. Such loops are desirable as they improve the quality of water in the immediate area and also give more flexibility to the system in the case of shut downs for repairs.

The remainder of the new mains were laid in public streets in the expanding residential areas, and a total of one hundred new services were connected to serve new buildings throughout the town.

In addition to the foregoing new construction, the department carried on its usual continuing maintenance operations. Although no new sewer mains were constructed, the sewer division installed thirty-four new house services and worked on many service leaks and stoppages. The water division repaired many small leaks, set new water meters and serviced old ones. The park division has maintained the various parks and playgrounds as well as caring for the high school athletic field and stands.

The highway division is again starting on its winter operation of plowing, sanding and snow removal. During the winter of 1950-1951 about seventy tons of sodium chloride were distributed on the roads together with many more tons of sand to aid in combating frozen snow and ice. The snow and ice removal program of the department continues to draw favorable comments from those who reside outside of the town and have opportunity to compare Andover's street with those of other communities.

The highway division has installed and repaired several drainage ditches and culverts in the course of its road maintenance program and several new catch basins were constructed and existing catch basins cleaned. Approximately one third of the town's surfaced highways were retreated with road tar and sand. About 100,000 gallons of tar, and 2300 cubic yards of sand were used in this work.

The board of public works expects that its maintenance program for 1952 will be very similar to that of 1951. The program for new construction under the various divisions is currently being studied and planned by the members of the board and their tentative program will be released for publication some time prior to the March town meeting.

He said that the new position on the switchboard should be ready for use by the end of the week and at that time the service would be greatly improved.

In addition to the increased calls caused by the toll-free service between Andover and Lawrence, Mr. Desmond said that service demanded during the Christmas season is always at peak. He said it was a combination of both factors which caused the overloading.

X-Ray Survey
Starts Monday

In preparation for the house-to-house X-Ray canvass which will start Monday, Jan. 7, Francis T. Kelly, chairman of the finance committee for the Andover boy scout district, has arranged with explorer scouts to deliver posters throughout the Andover business district this week. Francis J. Rodericks, general chairman of the Andover X-ray survey being sponsored by the Massachusetts department of public health, the Essex county health association, the Andover board of health and the Andover christmas seal committee urged residents of Andover to take advantage of this X-ray survey. He said that appointments for the X-Ray will be arranged at the convenience of Andover residents when possible.

A panel discussion relative to the survey will be broadcast tonight over radio station WLAW at 6:30 p.m. with Dr. Marion Perry, Mrs. Maria B. Carpenter and Francis J. Rodericks taking part.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Archie C. Littlefield

Mrs. Mattie C. (Young) Littlefield, Holt rd., died Tuesday at the Lawrence General hospital after a short illness. A native of Fall River, she resided in Saybrook, Conn., for many years, moving to Andover about three months ago.

Surviving is her husband, Archie C. Littlefield, one son, Philip C. of Andover and two grandchildren.

The funeral was held today from the Lundgren funeral home with services conducted at 1 p.m. by the Rev. Frederick B. Noss of the South Congregational church. Cremation will take place at Harmony Grove, Salem.

PHILIP L. HARDY

Philip L. Hardy died Monday morning at the Kent County Memorial hospital, Apponaug, R. I., following a short illness. A native of Andover, he had resided here until ten years ago.

Mr. Hardy was prominent in the contracting business. He attended the South church and was a member of St. Matthew's Lodge A. F. and A. M.

Surviving are a daughter, Helen, wife of Robert Gammons, Cincinnati, O., a brother, selectman Roy E. Hardy; and a sister, H. Evelyn Hardy, and two grandchildren.

The funeral was held from the Lundgren funeral home Wednesday with services at 2 p.m. conducted by the Rev. Frederick B. Noss, pastor of the South church. Cremation took place at Harmony Grove, Salem.

MRS. MARGARET J. CAIRNIE

Mrs. Margaret J. (Stewart) Cairnie, 41 Elm st., died Friday following a short illness. A native of Rattray, Ayrshire, Scotland, she had resided in Andover for the past 50 years and was a member of the Free Congregational church.

Surviving is a son Ernest of Andover, a brother, Alexander of Lawrence and two brothers and three sisters in Scotland; and two grandchildren.

The funeral was held from the Lundgren funeral home Monday with services at 2 p.m., conducted by the Rev. Levering Reynolds Jr. Burial was in Spring Grove cemetery.

The bearers were: John Waldie, Harold Waldie, Staff Sgt. Charles Waldie, John Munroe, William Stewart and Donald Green.

Find Couple

Victims Of Gas

The bodies of William B. Addis, 57, his wife, Christine, 47, and their pet dog were found in their home 116 Lowell st., Wednesday evening, victims of accidental gas poisoning.

Dr. Parkinson L. Oddy, associated medical examiner, said they were killed by gas seeping from an oven in their apartment.

The couple died sometime Christmas day. The turkey that had been prepared for their Christmas dinner was found uneaten.

Mr. Addis was found dead in bed and the partly clothed body of his wife was discovered on the bedroom floor by Andover police who responded to a call for assistance about 6:10 p.m. from Alphonse J. Picard, who lives downstairs.

Officers James R. Lynch and Warren Maddox were told by Picard that he investigated after being informed by his wife that she had not seen nor heard the couple during the day. It is estimated they had been dead 12 to 15 hours when found.

Addis had been a resident of Andover for many years. A World War I veteran he served with the 77th (N.Y.) division and was a member of Andover post, 2128, V.F.W. He was formerly employed by the Florida East Coast Hotels

Dane Praises Observance

The first day of the New Year was the answer to Police Chief George A. Dane's dream.

"Not an accident and not an arrest for drunkenness", was Chief Dane's report, "which makes it a wonderful New Year opener for all the police officials."

Chief Dane paid tribute to the sane judgment of Andover residents in their observance of the wildest holiday in the calendar. He said with a wry smile — "I hope this record can be maintained for a long time."

"It was a truly happy New Year in all Andover homes," the chief said, "for none was hurt because of mixing alcoholic beverages with automobile driving — often-times a fatal cocktail."

Garden Club Meets Tuesday

The Andover Garden club will meet Tuesday, Jan. 8 at 9:45 a.m. in the Andover Inn. Coffee will be served followed by an illustrated lecture on "The Garden Through History" by Mrs. J.L.R. De Morini. Mrs. Frank N. Benton will preside. Winners in the Christmas Doorway Decoration contest, who are not members of the club, will be special guests.

Blood Center

Albert Cole Jr., civil defense director in Andover, announced Thursday that he has designated the South church as the blood center for this town. He said that Dr. Jeremiah J. Daly will be the medical supervisor there.

Funds are to be made available for the purchase of blood storage bottles or plastic bags, which will be stockpiled in these centers.

The state committee of the blood section for civil defense has designated sites for the establishments of one or more blood centers in several communities.

A long face and a broad smile rarely travel together.

Phone Call From Japan

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coleman of Florence st., were very pleasantly surprised during the recent holiday with a telephone call from their son Lt. Arthur L. Coleman Jr., stationed in Japan. Lt. Coleman has been assigned to Camp Sendai hospital as chief radiologist since last September. His wife the former Cecilia Maguire of Larchmont, N. Y., joined him there in November.

XMAS LIGHTING IS APPRECIATED

Frederic A. Stott, public director at Phillips academy, expressed his appreciation for Christmas season lighting which was offered in the business section of Andover. Said Mr. Stott: "The constant pleasure, which has given to my son and, which, am sure, it has given to hundreds of other children has added to the joy of the season. In addition, feel well satisfied with the merchandise available for Christmas and regular shopping in the Andover area."

Parking Problem To Be Discussed

A partial solution of the parking problem in the area will be outlined to the town board of trade at a meeting at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday in the library.

The plan will be submitted by Roy E. Hardy, chairman of the board of selectmen, and that has been under consideration for some time. It is expected to be presented to the voters at the town warrant to be called at the town meeting in March.

If favored by the voters, relief of the parking problem will be presented later with a view to ease the situation in the square.

A large attendance is expected at this meeting.
